Defendants.

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

An initial case management conference was scheduled for “5/11/2023 11:00 AM in San Francisco, Courtroom 12, 19th Floor” as of February 21, 2023 (Dkt. No. 22). That same docket notice stated that a joint case management statement was due by May 4, 2023. No case management statement has been filed. On May 8, 2023, court staff emailed plaintiff to reiterate a docket notice issued that day changing the time of the case management conference on May 11, 2023, from 11:00 A.M. to 1:30 P.M. (Dkt. No. 23). The email also explicitly advised that the conference would be in person.

At the scheduled time for today’s initial case management conference, this action was called first. No party was present. After ninety minutes of proceedings in a different action, this action was called again. Still, no party was present. As such, plaintiff is hereby ORDERED TO SHOW CAUSE why this action should not be dismissed for lack of prosecution. Plaintiff shall submit a declaration explaining his failure to appear by JUNE 1, 2023. An IN PERSON
